

examiner.com
the insider source for local

Eye therapy and beauty to go at Cosmoprof 2012 in Las Vegas

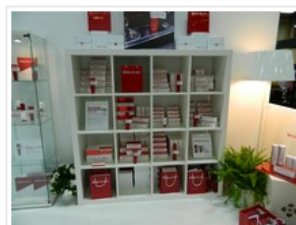

COSMOPROF 2012 | JULY 27, 2012 | BY: CHRISTA EMMER

The annual Cosmoprof show was held this week in Las Vegas. This was the tenth year in Las Vegas for the beauty products show. Cosmoprof is a chance for brands, distributors and buyers to network and bring the best of beauty to stores and salons. The show is filled with emerging products, some looking for a home and others looking to extend their reach. Here are a few of the great products you can look forward to finding in a store near you.

Therapy patches were front and center at the show this year. EyeSlices are reusable cryogel eye patches that soothe dark circles, redness and wrinkles. EyeSlices are made with whole leaf aloe and different instant cooling without being refrigerated. They come in a travel case so you can take them to work, the gym or anywhere your eyes need a treat. Available at

Photo 3 of 10: Under Eye Patches from Recipe for Men, $36 for 3 pairs. recipeformenusa.com
Credit: Christa Emmer

Recipe for Men at Cosmoprof Las Vegas 2012
Photo credit: Christa Emmer

The Trump International in Las Vegas or eyeslicesusa.com, $18. For more intense eye therapy, try Bella Semplice's Under Eye Masks. The Lotus Collagen mask contains lotus extract and hyaluronic acid to reduce fine lines, brighten and reduce puffiness. Just apply them after cleansing and leave on 30 minutes, 2-3 times per week. Also available in a full face mask, bellasemplice.com for stores. Swedish brand Recipe for Men has created an eye therapy patch just for men. The Under Eye Patches are made with marine collagen and algae extracts to reduce puffiness and increase moisture in your man's under eye, $36 for 3 pairs. If he doesn't like them - you can use them too!